

Job Title: Transload Supervisor

Location: North Bergen, NJ

Job Description:

- Supervise truck to railcar transloading operations, ensuring safe and efficient gondola railcar loading to meet customer demands.
- Work with customer to ensure appropriate work scheduling and staffing to meet customer demands cost efficiently.
- Maintain clear communication with the customer on all transloading and transportation related activities.
- Ensure safe rail movements in accordance with site rail procedures and policies.
- Supervise transload operators and laborers encouraging the use of STOP WORK authority and making safety priority.
- Ensure the use of site procedures, policies, instructions and job hazard analysis, JHA, for safety, compliance and operations.
- Learn and be able to fulfill all tasks and duties of facility operators and laborers as required.

Job Requirements

- Requires strong interpersonal skills, writing skills and ability to work in a constantly changing environment as a team player responsible for project-wide operations, safety, and compliance.
- Must be able to personally maintain and instill in the transload team members a high level of integrity for safety and compliance requirements at all levels of operations.
- Experience supervising employees and part of a team environment.
- Familiar with rail and transloading operations.

Desired Minimum Qualifications

- Experience as a supervisor.
- Computer proficient in Word, Excel and Outlook.
- Hazwoper and DOT 49 CFR Part 172 subpart H certification.
- Experience directly interacting with customers, regulators and vendors.
- Experience with rail operations including track-mobile operations.
- General equipment operation experience.